致同学

欢迎来到我们的英语学习乐园。这里有新鲜、丰富的话题，纯正、规范的语言，有趣、多样的练习。这是教材，但又不仅仅是教材。

在这里，我们将通过参与、探究和合作等实践方式，学会如何用英语与他人交流，表达自己的思想。在这里，我们将领略别样文化，体验异域风情，探寻更广阔的学习天地。

这是埃迪（Eddie）🐱，这是霍波（Hobo）🐶，他俩将伴随我们一起走过三年的学习时光。本学期我们共学习八个单元。每单元开篇的卡通画（Comic strip）以风趣的漫画、简洁的对话带我们开始新单元的学习。接下来的导入（Welcome to the unit），一组图片、一段对话，会激活我们对单元话题已有的知识储备。阅读（Reading）是我们的重点学习板块。在本学期的学习中，我们先在家乡走走，了解她的过去和现在；再背起行囊，去感受外面世界的精彩；丰富的网络资源，还可以让我们足不出户环游世界；行万里路，也要读万卷书，书本可以带领我们穿越时空，通晓古今；作为学生的我们，同时也是社会大家庭的一员，文明礼貌要时刻谨记；奉献爱心要从点滴做起；我们要关爱社会，保护地球，建设美好的绿色家园。语法板块（Grammar）主要梳理本单元出现的重点语言现象，帮助我们更好地掌握语法规则。综合技能（Integrated skills）中的听、说、读、写训练，着重培养我们的语言综合运用能力。本册学习技能（Study skills）提供了具体的写作指导，教我们区分事实和观点、要点和细节；学会使用图表整理思路，在作文中加入恰当的连接词承上启下；了解针对不同的话题应该使用的不同叙述方法；注意行文中的标点断句；知道如何引用习语为文章添彩；养成完成作文后及时自查错误并纠正的好习惯。学完一个单元，大家一定跃跃欲试，想动手写一写吧！任务板块（Task）引导我们整理思路、组织语言，再落笔成文。最后，通过自我评价（Self-assessment），我们将体验收获的快乐。如果还想接受更高的挑战，每个模块（四个单元）之后的课题（Project）是我们大显身手的好地方！

现在，让我们放松心情，一起走进这个乐园吧。祝大家学习愉快！

Millie: How did you go to school when you were a student, Dad?
Dad: I used to go to school by bike.
Millie: Why didn’t you take a bus?
Dad: Well, there were always too many people on the bus, and it took a long time to wait for the next one.
Millie: Really? I go to school by bus. Now it’s easy and fast.
Millie wants to write about the changes in Sunshine Town for her history project. Daniel’s grandpa, Mr Chen, knows a lot about Sunshine Town, so Millie is interviewing him to get some information.

Millie: Do you know Sunshine Town very well, Mr Chen?

Mr Chen: Sure. I’ve lived here since I was born.

Millie: Have you ever moved house?

Mr Chen: Yes. I first lived in the northern part of town with my parents. When I got married in 1965, my wife and I moved two blocks away and we’ve lived in this area since then.

Millie: Has the town changed a lot over the years?

Mr Chen: Yes! We only had some small restaurants and shops years ago. And we had a post office and a cinema in the town centre. Now the government has turned part of the town centre into a new park. We have a new theatre and a large shopping mall too.
Millie: Was pollution a problem then?

Mr Chen: Yes, it was. There was once a steel factory near the Sunshine River. They often put the waste into the river. Later the government realized the problem and took action to improve the situation. Now the river is much cleaner.

Millie: Do you think life is better now?

Mr Chen: Well, in some ways it is. It’s really nice to have a beautiful modern town. However, most of my old friends have moved away. It has become impossible for us to see each other as often as before. We used to play cards and Chinese chess together. Now I feel a bit lonely from time to time. Anyway, it’s good to see the amazing changes in the town.
B1 Millie is telling Sandy about her interview with Mr Chen. Sandy does not know the meanings of some words. Help her match the words on the left with the meanings on the right. Write the correct letters in the blanks.

1 married (line 5) ________ a sometimes
2 block (line 5) ________ b know or understand something that you did not know before
3 factory (line 13) ________ c make something better
4 realize (line 15) ________ d a place where things are made by machines
5 improve (line 15) ________ e not happy because of being alone
6 lonely (line 22) ________ f having a husband or wife
7 from time to time (line 22) ________ g a group of buildings with streets on all sides

B2 Millie is telling Sandy more about her interview with Mr Chen. Help Sandy check if she has got the information right. Write a T if a sentence is true or an F if it is false.

1 Mr Chen knows little about Sunshine Town. ________
2 Mr Chen moved away from his parents when he got married. ________
3 There is a large shopping mall in Sunshine Town now. ________
4 The steel factory once put its waste into the Sunshine River. ________
5 It is easy for Mr Chen to see his old friends now. ________
6 Amazing changes have taken place in Sunshine Town. ________
Sandy wants to learn more about the history of Sunshine Town. She is asking Millie some questions. Work in pairs. Complete their conversation.

Millie: Yes. He first lived with his parents in the (1) ________________ part of town, and then moved to another flat two (2) ________________ away.

Sandy: What was the town like in the past?

Millie: There were some small (3) ________________ and shops.

Sandy: Were there any factories in Sunshine Town?

Present perfect tense

We use the present perfect tense to talk about an action that started in the past and continues to the present.

I have lived here since I was born.

We use the present perfect tense to talk about an action that happened in the past and has a connection with the present.

Eddie has just eaten Hobo’s food.

(Eddie ate the food, and now Hobo has nothing to eat.)

We also use the present perfect tense to talk about how many times an action has happened till now.

I have already read this book many times.

We make positive statements in the present perfect tense like this:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>I/You/We/They</th>
<th>have</th>
<th>arrived.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>He/She/It</td>
<td>has</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We make negative statements in the present perfect tense like this:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>I/You/We/They</th>
<th>have</th>
<th>not</th>
<th>arrived.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>He/She/It</td>
<td>has</td>
<td>not</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We ask and answer questions using the present perfect tense like this:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Have</th>
<th>I/you/we/they</th>
<th>arrived?</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Has</td>
<td>he/she/it</td>
<td></td>
</tr>

Yes,

<table>

<tbody>
<tr>

No,

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>I/you/we/they</th>
<th>haven’t.</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>he/she/it</td>
<td>hasn’t.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
We form the past participles of regular verbs by adding -ed, just as what we do to form the simple past tense of these verbs.

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Most verbs</th>
<th>+ ed</th>
<th>finish → finished</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Verbs ending in -e</td>

<td>− y + ied</td>
<td>carry → carried</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Short verbs ending in a vowel + a consonant</td>
<td>double the consonant + ed</td>
<td>stop → stopped</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

We form the past participles of irregular verbs differently. Here are some examples.

| No change                | come → come | hurt → hurt |
| Change the vowel         | hold → held | win → won  |
| Change the consonant     | lend → lent | build → built |
| Change the vowel(s) and the consonant(s) | catch → caught | keep → kept |
|                          | forget → forgotten | tell → told |
| Others                   | be → been  | have → had    |
|                          | fall → fallen | fly → flown   |
|                          | draw → drawn | see → seen   |

Study skills

Facts and opinions

We often use facts and opinions when we write. Facts are true statements. They include names, dates, events and numbers. Opinions tell what we believe, feel or think. They may not be true.

Beijing is the capital of China. (Fact)
Beijing is the best city in the world. (Opinion)

Many changes have taken place in my hometown. (Fact)
The new shopping mall is a good place to have fun. (Opinion)

When we write, we can use facts to support our opinions. We can also give facts first, and then state our opinions.

My hometown is beautiful. There are green hills all around. A river runs through the centre of town.

I have moved to a new school this term. I do not know the school very well and I have no friends here. I feel unhappy these days.

A  Read the sentences below. Write an F for a fact or an O for an opinion.

1 There were only small shops and restaurants in the town.
2 Old people used to play cards and Chinese chess together.
3 The new park in the town centre looks beautiful.
4 There was once a steel factory near the Sunshine River.
5 Life is getting better in some ways.
6 Many of Mr Chen’s friends have moved away.

B  Millie is writing about the changes in her life. Help her decide which are opinions and which are facts. Reorganize them into a short passage.

1 We have more subjects to learn.
2 It is not easy to get used to the changes of life quickly.
3 When I was at primary school, I walked to school with my mum.
4 Now I go to school by bus on my own.
5 I have to spend more time on my homework than before.
6 Some subjects are difficult.

No, I haven’t.
Hi Millie,

How are you? We haven’t seen each other since last week. I miss you so much! My parents and I have been in Hong Kong for two days. We’re having a fantastic time here. Today we spent the whole day at Disneyland.

We got to the park by underground. First, we had fun on Space Mountain—an indoor roller coaster in the dark. It moved at high speed and was really exciting! We were screaming and laughing through the ride.

Next, we hurried to a restaurant to have a quick meal. On the way, we met some Disney cartoon characters, such as Snow White and Mickey Mouse. They were so cute.

Everybody got excited when a parade of Disney characters began later in the afternoon. It was the best part of the day. I ran after them and couldn’t stop taking photos. After the parade, we watched a 4-D film. It was like magic. We could even smell the apple pie and feel the wind.

Then we did some shopping. I bought a couple of key rings for classmates. I’m sure you’ll love them.

20 At the end of the day, we watched the fireworks in front of Sleeping Beauty Castle. The castle looked bright and beautiful under the fireworks.

I know you’ve gone to Hainan. Hope you’ve enjoyed yourself there!

See you soon.

25 Yours,

Kitty

Sandy has never been to South Hill. She wants to go with them.

We use have/has gone to express the idea that someone went to a place but has not yet returned.

Kitty and her family have gone to Hong Kong. They will come back next week.

Suzy is not at home at the moment. She has gone to the bookshop.

Mr Dong has lived here for many years.

Mr Dong has lived here since he was born.

Some verbs, such as come, go, buy and leave, can be used in the present perfect tense, but they cannot be used with for or since in positive statements.

✓ He has not left Beijing yet.

✓ He has been away from Beijing for a week.

✗ He has bought a car since 2007.

Daniel is looking at a website called “Around the World in Eight Hours”. Here is what the website’s guide says.

Welcome to “Around the World in Eight Hours”. I’m your tour guide, Robin. Have you noticed the “Tour” icon at the top of the page? Just click on it, and you can visit Asia, Africa, Europe, America and more in only eight hours!
Here we are in “the Big Apple”—New York, the biggest city in the USA.

Wall Street, the world-famous trade centre, is here at the southern end of Manhattan Island. There are many big companies and international banks here.

Further on is Times Square. Every year, thousands of people gather here on New Year’s Eve. It’s exciting to see the huge glass ball falling through the darkness!

In the centre of the island is Central Park. With several lakes, hills and a large green lawn, it’s a good place to relax after a hard day’s work.

When you visit New York, don’t miss Broadway. It has been famous for its theatres since the early twentieth century. Have you ever heard of the song “Memory”? It comes from the famous Broadway musical Cats.

OK, so much for New York. There’s a “Back” icon at the bottom of the page. Click on it, pick another city and then start your new tour!

Simple past tense and present perfect tense

There are some differences between the simple past tense and the present perfect tense.

- We use the simple past tense to tell what happened in the past.

  Daniel went to Beijing two years ago.

- We use the present perfect tense to talk about an action that started in the past and continues to the present.

  Daniel has lived in Beijing for two years.

- We use the simple past tense to tell what happened in the past.

  Daniel bought a new computer last month.

- We use the present perfect tense to talk about the result of an action. When the action happened is not very important. It may have just happened or happened some time ago.

  Daniel has bought a new computer.

  (Daniel has a new computer now.)

- We use the simple past tense to tell what happened in the past.

  Mr Wu visited Canada in 2010 and 2011.

- We use the present perfect tense to tell how many times an action has happened till now.

  Mr Wu has been to Canada twice.

Making charts

We can use charts to organize our ideas when we write. This helps us see and understand the ideas better. We can also use charts to make notes of a piece of writing.

We can use the following chart to show people what the website “Around the World in Eight Hours” is about.

![Chart showing the website Around the World in Eight Hours and its features]

It is a/an ... country.

There are/is ... on/in ....
It has always been famous for ....
The best time to visit ... is ....
The weather often/seldom changes ....
Amy has written an introduction to the UK. Read her article.

The United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, also called the UK, is an island country. It is made up of England, Scotland, Wales and Northern Ireland. London, the capital city, is big and modern. Like China, the UK has a long history. Kings and queens were once its rulers.

There are many palaces and castles in this old European country. Buckingham Palace is the most famous one. It has been the home of kings and queens for a long time. The UK has always been famous for its museums. Among them is the British Museum. You can learn a lot about the world’s culture there. The UK also has many places of natural beauty, such as the Lake District. You can see swans and other wild birds on the lakes there.

The best time to visit the UK is from May to September because its winter is wet and cold. The weather changes often there. It is sunny one minute, but rainy the next, so prepare for it before you go there. Moreover, remember that people use pounds there, not RMB or dollars!

Pick a country that interests you and make a chart to organize your ideas. Then write an introduction. You can add some pictures to make it more interesting.

Sandy and Daniel are talking about what they like to read. Work in pairs and talk about the type of book you like. Use the conversation below as a model.

Sandy: What are you reading, Daniel?
Daniel: I’m reading a book about Germany in World War II. I’m interested in history books. They improve my knowledge of the past.
Sandy: But I think they’re boring.
Daniel: What do you like to read in your spare time?
Sandy: I like reading novels and plays. The Hunchback of Notre Dame by the French writer Victor Hugo is great.
Daniel: I’ve read that book. The story of the ugly man Quasimodo really touched me.
Sandy: Me too.
After our ship crashed against the rocks, I swam as far as I could. By the time I finally felt the land under my feet, I was tired out. I fell down on the beach and went to sleep.

I woke up as the sun was rising, but I found I could not move. My arms, legs and hair were tied to the ground!

Then I felt something on my leg. It moved up over my stomach and neck until it was standing near my face. I looked down and saw a very small man. He was the same size as my little finger! Where was I? Who was this tiny person?

Soon more small men started climbing all over me. There were around 40 of them. I shouted at them—the loud noise made them all fall over. However, they soon got up again and continued moving across my body.

One of these small men began talking to me, but I could not understand him. I did not know what to say either. I tried to pull one hand free and finally managed to break the ropes. When I lifted my left hand into the air, the small men began to shout. I looked down and saw a huge army of tiny people. They were coming straight towards me. “I must run away from them,” I thought, but I did not know how to get away.
B  A strange world

B1 Sandy is not sure about the meanings of some words in the story. Help her match the words on the left with the meanings on the right. Write the correct letters in the blanks.

4 tiny (line 9) ________  d very tired
5 continue (line 13) ________  e hitting something
6 manage (line 16) ________  f hold things together with ropes

B2 Sandy wants to explain what happened to Gulliver. She wrote down some notes on a piece of paper, but her mother tore it up by mistake. Help her match the events with their causes.

1 Gulliver fell down on the beach and went to sleep. ________
2 Gulliver found himself unable to move. ________

B Using must and have to

We use must and have to to say that it is necessary to do something. We use must when the speaker feels that something is necessary.

“I must run away from them,” Gulliver thought.

We use have to when the situation makes something necessary.

I have to use them to reach the box on the fridge.

She has to take her daughter from school in the afternoon.

We use must not to say that something is not allowed.

You must not smoke in the library.

We use do not have to to say that it is not necessary to do something.

We do not have to go to school at weekends.

Library rules

B Speak up: I want some history books.

Daniel is talking to Mrs Li, the school librarian. Work in pairs and take turns to borrow books from a library. Use the conversation below as a model.

Daniel: Excuse me, I want some history books, but I don’t know where to find them.

Mrs Li: Don’t worry. You can search for information on the computer here.

Daniel: Thank you. How many books can I borrow at a time?

Mrs Li: You can borrow one Chinese book and one English book.

Daniel: I see. How long can I keep the books?

Mrs Li: For two weeks. You must return them on time.

Daniel: Could you tell me how to renew them?

Mrs Li: You don’t have to come to our desk every time. Just renew them online. It’s easy.

Mrs Li: You’re welcome.

I like novels

Sandy is writing about her love for novels. Read her article and underline the transitional words and phrases.

I like novels. I enjoy reading the books of Robert Louis Stevenson because I find them really exciting. For example, Treasure Island tells the story of a young boy who sailed the sea to look for hidden treasure. Jim, the main character in the book, is very brave. His story gave me a lot of confidence. After reading the book, I am not as shy as I used to be and I am willing to try new things. I also want to travel and have exciting experiences in the future. Moreover, I have decided to write my own stories. Maybe I can become a writer when I am older!

My reading habits

I love reading. I spend over seven hours a week reading different types of books. On weekdays, I usually read for about half an hour before going to bed. I read a lot at the weekend. I am interested in history books, but I like novels best. The four great classical Chinese novels are my favourite.

I get most of my books from Sunshine Library—it is just opposite my home. My friends give me lots of advice on books. We often meet together and discuss what to read.

Reading is always a wonderful time. Good books are good friends. They help me relax after a busy day. They also open up a whole new world to me.

Write a report on your own reading habits. You can make some notes to organize your ideas first. Use Millie’s report in Part B as a model.

An information folder

The Class 1, Grade 8 students wish to visit other countries. They have decided to make an information folder about different countries around the world. Your class wants to do the same thing. You need to choose a country and find out more information about it. Then you can make the folder.

A Planning and preparing

1 Think of a country that you find interesting and wish to visit. Talk about it and its places of interest with a partner.

2 Work alone. Think of a set of questions about the country you have chosen. If you need help, you can use the questions below to give yourself some ideas.

3 When you have the questions ready, look for the information you need. You may use the library and the Internet.

4 Design an information folder about the country of your choice. Collect some pictures, postcards, posters and leaflets about that country and put them in the folder.

5 Write about some special places of interest in that country.

The country of my choice

What is the name of the country?
How big is it?
What is its capital?
How many people live there?
Does it have any famous mountains or rivers?
Is it near the sea?
What are the most famous places there?
What language do most people speak?
What is the weather like?
When is spring/summer/autumn/winter?
What is the time difference between China and that country?
What special foods do people eat there?
What special festivals do people celebrate there? When are they?
B  Tips for preparing your information folder

Writing
- Group your ideas into different sections.
- Each paragraph should have one main point.
- Use facts to support each point.
- Keep each paragraph short and interesting.

Using pictures
- You may want to design an attractive cover for your information folder.
- Collect as many interesting pictures, maps, drawings, postcards, photos and posters as possible. You can use them to explain some of the points more clearly.

Drafting and checking
- Write your first draft.
- Check for spelling and grammatical mistakes.
- Ask your partner to check your work.

Presenting
- Put your writing and pictures in the folder. You may use the computer to help you arrange the text and pictures nicely.
- Put the name of the country you have chosen on the cover of the folder.
- If you like, stick a picture of the country on the cover.
- Show your folder to your partner and talk about the country.
Learning about manners

Amy and her cousin Shirley are discussing what they should and should not do in the library. Work in pairs and discuss what we should and should not do in a public place. Use the conversation below as a model.

Shirley: Can we chat in the library?
Amy: I’m afraid not. We should keep quiet.
Shirley: Anything else?
Amy: Don’t drop litter everywhere. Always keep the library clean.
Shirley: I see. Can we eat in the library?
Amy: No, we can’t eat there.
Shirley: Can we write in the books?
Amy: No, we shouldn’t write in the books, and we should put them back after reading.
Daniel is hosting the school radio show this week. He is interviewing Jenny, a Grade 9 student, who has recently visited the UK.

Daniel: Hi, everyone. Today we’ve invited Jenny to talk about manners in the UK. What’s the proper way to greet people there, Jenny?

Jenny: Well, British people say “hello” or “nice to meet you” and shake your hand when they meet you for the first time.

Daniel: Do they greet people with a kiss?

Jenny: No. British people only greet relatives or close friends with a kiss.

Daniel: How do people start a conversation?

Jenny: They talk about the weather, holidays, music, books or something else. But please avoid subjects like age, weight or money.

Daniel: Do people there behave politely in public?

Jenny: Yes, they do. They always queue. They think it’s rude to push in before others. Also, if they bump into someone in the street, they’ll say “sorry”.

Daniel: Anything else?

Jenny: If you’re in their way, they won’t touch you or push past you. They’ll say “excuse me” and be polite enough to wait till you move.

Daniel: British people are very polite at home as well, aren’t they?

Jenny: Yes. They say “please” and “thank you” all the time!

Daniel: Any other tips for us if we’re going to the UK?

Jenny: Let me see. Oh, keep your voice down in public. British people don’t like to shout or laugh loudly.

Daniel: OK. Thanks, Jenny. Now we’ve learnt more about manners in the UK. I’m sure they’re helpful to us.

Jenny: I hope so. Just as the saying goes, “When in Rome, do as the Romans do.”
B Good manners in the UK

B1 Simon does not know some of the words in the interview. Help him match the words on the left with the meanings on the right. Write the correct letters in the blanks.

Talking about manners in China

Daniel is thinking about the differences in manners between the UK and China. Work in pairs and discuss his questions below with your partner.

1. How do we greet each other?
2. How do we usually start a conversation?
3. Do we always queue?
4. What do we do if someone is in our way?
5. Do we shout or laugh loudly in public?
6. Do we say “please” and “thank you” at home?

Grammar

A Using enough to

We can use “to be + adjective + enough + to-infinitive” to describe a person’s personality and abilities.

You are old enough to learn about manners.

If you are in their way, British people will be polite enough to wait till you move.

Suzy’s friends

Suzy wants to tell her parents what she thinks about her friends. Help her make sentences using “to be + adjective + enough + to-infinitive”.

B Using too ... to

We can use “to be + too + adjective + to-infinitive” to express a negative result.

British people are very polite. They do not shout loudly in public.

→ British people are too polite to shout loudly in public.

British people are very polite. They will not push past you.

→ British people are too polite to push past you.

Sometimes we need to add for someone before the to-infinitive.

The UK is very far away. Jenny cannot go there on her own.

→ The UK is too far away for Jenny to go to on her own.

After the radio show

The radio show is over. Millie wants to write about that day in her diary. Help her rewrite the sentences with “to be + too + adjective + to-infinitive”.

1 Suzy was very shy. She did not join the discussion.

2 Simon was very excited. He did not express himself clearly.

3 Peter was slow. He could not write down all the main points.

4 Amy was careless. She did not take her hat with her when she left.

5 Kitty was very busy with her dancing lessons. She did not listen to the radio.

We often use “to be + too + _______ (adjective, adverb) + to-infinitive” to express a negative result.

Mr Zhao: Please don’t take photos, Amy.
Amy: Why not?
Mr Zhao: Look at the sign. It says “No photos”. We shouldn’t take photos here.
Amy: Sorry, I didn’t notice that sign just now.
Shirley: Come and see, Amy! I’ve seen this painting before.
Amy: OK. I’m coming, but we shouldn’t shout in the museum, Shirley.

Using English sayings

A saying is a short wise statement that usually gives advice or expresses some truth about life.

When in Rome, do as the Romans do.
(When you are in a foreign country or a situation you are not familiar with, you should behave in the way that the people around you behave.)

Many traditional sayings are still in general use today. Sometimes they are a great help if you need some wise words to express your ideas. They make what you say or write simple and vivid.

A Sandy collected some sayings. Help her match the sayings with their meanings. Write the correct letters in the boxes.

- a everybody will be lucky or successful sometime in their life
- b when one bad thing happens to you, other bad things happen soon after
- c you have to do something before others in order to be successful
- d if lots of people share the work, it will make a job easier to complete
- e what other people have always seems better than your own
- f risk losing everything all at one time

1 the early bird catches the worm          2 it never rains but it pours
Mr Wu has prepared some sayings for the students. Help the students complete the sentences with the correct sayings.

- actions speak louder than words
- no pain, no gain
- a friend in need is a friend indeed
- practice makes perfect
- burn the candle at both ends

1. Just as the saying goes, “__________________________.” My cousin has made his dream come true after years of hard work.

2. ______________________. If you keep practising speaking English every day, you will be better at it.

3. Do not try to do many things at one time. Otherwise, you will become tired out. Remember, you cannot ______________________.

4. He always gives his friends help when they need it because he knows that ______________________.

5. Dad never says that he is good at cooking, but in fact he is. He always cooks delicious meals for us, that is, ______________________.

The 12th Special Olympics World Games were successfully held in Shanghai in 2007. Simon is reading a report on the experience of a volunteer. Here is the report.

Volunteering for the Special Olympics World Games

Liu Ming did not know what to expect when he volunteered for the Special Olympics World Summer Games in Shanghai, back in October 2007. Now he thinks it was the most amazing experience of his life. “It’s fantastic to work as a volunteer!” he says.

The Special Olympics World Games give children and adults with intellectual disabilities a chance to show their skills to the world. They include many events similar to those in the Olympics, such as basketball, football and swimming.

Over 40,000 people gave up their spare time for the 2007 Special Olympics World Games. It was necessary for these volunteers to receive training before doing the tasks. Then they provided support for the athletes and helped make the event a great success.

“I was the swimming coach for a young boy from North China called Li Hai,” says Liu Ming. “He was born with intellectual disabilities. It was very brave of him to join the competition. To Li Hai, the most important thing is not to win a gold or a silver, but to take part. Li Hai tried his best and finished fourth. He feels more confident now because of the Special Olympics World Games.”

The Special Olympics World Games also bring people together. Athletes and volunteers from different backgrounds feel like part of one big family. “It’s great for us to work closely with these special athletes. You get to help them achieve their dreams,” says Liu Ming.
B Special Olympics World Games volunteers

Simon is reading about the Special Olympics World Games. Here are the main points of the paragraphs in the report. Where can he find the information? Help him fill in the blanks with the correct numbers of the paragraphs.

Main points

1. An introduction to the Special Olympics World Games
2. Liu Ming’s experience
3. Liu Ming’s feelings about the event
4. What volunteers do for the event

Simon is chatting online with his cousin Annie about volunteering for the Special Olympics World Games. Replace each of the underlined parts with a word or phrase from the report.

Simon: Have you heard of the international sports festival for people with intellectual disabilities?

Annie: Yes, and I know some people offer to help without getting paid for the event. How do they help?

Simon: They give up their time when they’re not working or busy to provide help and support. I read about one volunteer. He was the person who provided swimming lessons for a boy called Li Hai.

Annie: Did Li Hai win first prize?

Simon: No. He finished fourth, but he feels more sure he can do better now.

Annie: It’s great to help those special athletes make their dreams come true.

Simon: Yes. Maybe that’s why this event is so different from other usual games!
Annie learnt about the Special Olympics World Games from Simon and made some notes. Write a T if a sentence is true or an F if it is false.

1. Liu Ming was a volunteer for the 2007 Special Olympics World Games.
2. Liu Ming knew what to expect before he became a volunteer.
3. There were only a few events in the 2007 Special Olympics World Games.
4. There were over 40,000 volunteers for the 2007 Special Olympics World Games.
5. Li Hai was born with intellectual disabilities.
6. Li Hai was sure to win the swimming competition.

Amy is asking Simon some questions about the Special Olympics World Games. Help Simon answer her questions with the words in the report.

Amy: What are the Special Olympics World Games for?
Simon: They give (1) _____________ and (2) _____________ with intellectual disabilities a (3) _____________ to show their skills to the world.

Organizing your ideas

An article is often made up of three parts: introduction, main body and conclusion. However, we can organize our ideas in different ways according to the type of writing.

A Time order
We use this method when we write about an experience or an event.

Topic: A trip to Nanjing
First, ....
Next, ....
Then ....
Finally, ....

B Space order
We use this method when we describe a place or an object.

Topic: My bedroom
The door ....
My bed ....
The computer on my desk ....
The window ....

C General to specific
When we use this method, we give a general statement first, and then use specific information to support the main idea.

Topic: Travelling
Travelling is fun.
We see different people and sights.
We learn about different cultures.
Travelling helps our mind relax.
Travelling helps us keep fit.

D Specific to general
We use this method when we want to use some specific examples to lead to our main ideas.

Topic: Environment
The sky is not as blue as before.
The water is not clean any more.
The weather changes often.
We have more bad weather.
Our environment is getting worse.
We need to take action to protect it.

Mr Wu gives the students some topics and asks them to choose a suitable way to organize their ideas. Help them choose the best way for each topic. Write A, B, C or D in the box.

Dear all,

A Grade 9 student at No. 2 Middle School needs our help!

The student’s name is Xiao Wei. He has been ill in hospital since last month. The doctor says that he has a serious blood disease. An operation may save him, but it will cost over 300,000 yuan.

Xiao Wei’s parents are both farmers. They do not have enough money for such an operation. However, it is important for Xiao Wei to have the operation as soon as possible. Otherwise, he may lose his life.

I am writing to ask for your help. Please donate money. Many hands make light work. If all of us can give a helping hand, he may get well again soon.

Thanks a lot for your help!

Peter

You also want to help people in need. Discuss in pairs who you want to help and what you can do. Use the ideas on the next page to help you.
• Someone with a serious disease
• People in poor areas
• Blind and deaf people
• The elderly
• Children without parents
• Earthquake survivors

A  An interview with an ORBIS doctor

Amy is interested in the work that ORBIS doctors and nurses do. She found an interview with an ORBIS doctor. Here is the interview.

Interviewer: Dr Ma, please tell us something about blindness.

Dr Ma: About 285 million people around the world are blind or have other eye problems, mostly in poor areas, and about 80 per cent of these cases can be prevented or cured. However, many people don’t have money for medical treatment.

Interviewer: How does ORBIS help?

Dr Ma: ORBIS uses its Flying Eye Hospital to visit poor areas. On the plane, volunteer doctors do operations. The plane is also used as a training centre.

Interviewer: Why don’t you work in a hospital?

Dr Ma: Many of our patients can’t afford to go to hospital, so we have to go to them. Also, local doctors and nurses are invited on board to learn about eye operations. We can teach them new skills. By training them, we hope to help more people.
Interviewer: How many operations do you do during a visit?

Dr Ma: During my last visit, 150 patients were operated on.

Interviewer: You’re doing a really important job.

Dr Ma: Thank you. I’m proud to help people see again and improve their lives.

Interviewer: Is there anything else you’d like to say to our readers?

Dr Ma: Yes. Modern medicine is developing quickly and now most eye problems and diseases can be treated and cured. But more money is needed to carry on with our work. We hope more people will support us.

Interviewer: Thank you very much for your time, Dr Ma.

Passive voice in the simple present and past tenses

We use the active voice when it is important to know who performs the action.

Volunteer doctors do operations on the plane.

We use the passive voice when

- it is obvious who performs the action.
  The plane is used as a training centre.

- we do not know or do not need to know who performs the action.
  His eye problem was cured two months ago.

- the action is more important than the person who performs the action.
  The lives of the patients with eye problems are improved.

We form the passive voice in the simple present tense like this:

<table>

<td>supported</td>

A The work of UNICEF

Daniel has found some information about UNICEF. Read it with him.

UNICEF is part of the United Nations. It was set up in Europe in 1946, after World War II. At that time, many children’s lives were changed because of the war, and UNICEF wanted to help them.

Now UNICEF works in over 190 countries and areas. It helps governments, communities and families make the world a better place for children.

Daniel is listening to a radio programme about UNICEF. Help him put the sentences in the correct order. Write the numbers 1–5 in the boxes.

- UNICEF provides basic education for poor children in many countries. It helps them go to school.
- UNICEF provides clean water and food. It wants all children to be healthy.
- You can help by donating money or working as a volunteer.
- UNICEF raises money by selling Christmas cards and organizing other activities.
- UNICEF works all over the world.

Mr Wu asked the students to write a report on UNICEF. First, he gave them some questions to help them organize their ideas. Help Daniel answer the questions with the information in Parts A1 and A2.

1. When was UNICEF set up? ___________________________
2. Why was UNICEF set up? ___________________________
3. Where does UNICEF work? __________________________
4. What does UNICEF do to help? _______________________
5. How does UNICEF raise money? ______________________
UNICEF is part of (1) _________________. It was set up in Europe in (2) _____________, after (3) _________________. At that time, many (4) _________________ were changed because of the war, and UNICEF wanted to help them.

Now UNICEF works in over (5) _________________. It helps governments, (6) _____________ and families make the world (7) _________________ for children.

UNICEF wants all children to be (8) _____________, so it provides them with (9) _________________ and food, and tries to prevent them from getting illnesses. UNICEF also believes that it is important for children to receive (10) _________________, so it helps them go to school.

UNICEF raises money by (11) _________________ and organizing other activities. People can support it by donating money or working as volunteers.

B  Speak up: I’ve got toothache.

A boy goes to a health centre of UNICEF. He is talking to the doctor. Work in pairs and ask your partner about his or her problem. Use the conversation below as a model.

Doctor: You look pale. What’s the matter?
Boy: I don’t feel well. I’ve got toothache. It hurts.
Doctor: How long have you felt like this?
Boy: For about two days.
Doctor: OK. Open your mouth and let me have a check. ... Well, it’s nothing serious. Take this medicine after meals three times a day. You’ll be all right in a few days.
Boy: OK. Thanks.

Millie has written about her experience as a host of a charity show. Help her add the correct punctuation marks.

The big day came very quickly and suddenly it was the night before the charity show I could not sleep at all that night because I was so excited Will it be a success I kept asking myself

2. She was afraid of flying.
3. She learnt about ORBIS.
4. She trained as a nurse.
5. She works for ORBIS.
6. She enjoys her work.

B  Amy wrote a report on Diana and her charity work. Read Amy’s report below.

Diana was once a secretary of a big company. She lived in a comfortable flat and drove to work. She travelled to many places, but she seldom took the plane. She was afraid of flying.

One day, Diana saw a TV programme about ORBIS. She learnt about the Flying Eye Hospital. She wanted to help poor people with eye problems see again, so she made up her mind to train as a nurse and attended courses after work.

Diana is working for ORBIS now. She has to travel over 300 days a year. She is getting used to travelling by plane.

Diana enjoys her work. She is glad to be able to help people see again. She does not have as much money as before, but she thinks her life is more meaningful.

Caring about the Earth

World Environment Day is coming. The Class 1, Grade 8 students are busy discussing the Earth’s problems and preparing a presentation.

Task Give a presentation on how to go green.
Welcome to the unit

A green life

The Class 1, Grade 8 students are talking about ways to live a green life. Look at the pictures below and match them with the correct sentences.

1. a. We can reduce air pollution by riding bicycles.

   b. We can save water by taking shorter showers.

3. c. We can save energy by turning off the lights when we leave a room.

   d. We can protect the environment by recycling waste.

4. Mr Wu is asking the students how to live a green life. Work in groups and discuss what you can do. Use the conversation below as a model.

Mr Wu: What should we do to live a green life, class?

Kitty: My dad used to drive me to school, but now we take the underground. More and more families own cars and this causes serious air pollution.

Millie: I agree. It’s wise for people to choose public transport or ride bicycles.

Daniel: I think we can take shorter showers to save water.

Sandy: Yes. And we should remember to turn off the lights when we leave a room.
I love Switzerland. It is a country with high mountains and clean blue lakes. It is beautiful, and we should try to keep it that way.

In Switzerland, things like glass, plastic and paper are separated into different groups and then recycled. Even old clothes and shoes can be recycled. I learnt about an organization for recycling clothes. It collects old clothes from all over the country. Some of the clothes are sold in charity shops, some are given to the poor, and others are sent to factories for recycling. My family and I often send our old jeans and T-shirts to this organization.

Our government has many laws to protect the environment. For example, we are not allowed to cut down trees. Otherwise, we will be punished. If we drop litter in a public place, we will be fined by the police. There are also laws to limit air and water pollution.

Nature is our greatest treasure. We depend on its rich resources to live, so it is important for us to protect it wisely. Luckily, we are starting to use energy from the sun, wind and water. These new types of energy cost very little and will never run out. Moreover, they produce little pollution.

Today is 5 June, World Environment Day. What have you done for the environment? Remember that everyone can do something to make a difference!
What do people in Switzerland do?

Kitty is not sure about the meanings of some words in Martina’s article. Help her match the words on the left with the meanings on the right. Write the correct letters in the blanks.

4. fine (line 15) ________ d. put things into different groups
5. run out (line 20) ________ e. let someone do something
6. produce (line 21) ________ f. treat something used so that it can be used again

Kitty made some notes of Martina’s blog on a piece of paper, but her mother tore it up by mistake. Help her match the two halves of the sentences. Write the correct letters in the blanks.

1. Switzerland is a beautiful country ________
2. In Switzerland, glass, plastic and paper ________

b. energy from the sun, wind and water.
c. to protect the environment.
d. with high mountains and clean blue lakes.
e. because we depend on its rich resources to live.

☐ b People are starting to use new energy.
☐ c People in Switzerland recycle many things to reduce pollution.

Kitty: In Switzerland, glass, plastic and paper are (2) ____________ into different groups and then (3) ____________.

Grammar

Passive voice in the simple future tense

We use the passive voice in the simple future tense when the action has not taken place yet.

You will be punished if you cut down a tree.

These bottles will be recycled to make new things.

We form the passive voice in the simple future tense like this:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Subject</th>
<th>will be/be going to be</th>
<th>Past participle</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>will be/am going to be</td>
<td></td>

<td>will be/are going to be</td>
<td>supported.</td>

2. design/posters/will/by Sandy

3. to all the people/send/leaflets/in the town/will

4. are going to/hold/some of the activities/in the town square
Environment Week

Lisa is telling her cousin Harry about a show that will be held in this Environment Week on the phone. Help Lisa answer Harry’s questions using the passive voice.

Lisa: Hi, Harry. There’s going to be an environment show here.

Harry: Really? When is the show going to be held?

Harry: Who will be invited to the show?

Lisa: _____________________________

Harry: What will be displayed at the show?

Lisa: _____________________________
(videos about the past and present of Sunshine Town)

Harry: What will be discussed at the show?

Lisa: _____________________________
(ways about how to protect the environment)

We use “will be or ____________ + past participle” to form the passive voice in the simple future tense.
Pollution

Pollution is one of the biggest problems in the world today. In many places, rubbish (1) ________________ (throw) into lakes and rivers, so many of them (2) ________________ (pollute).

In some cities, the air (3) ________________ (fill) with pollution. This makes people ill, and more people (4) ________________ (hurt) in the future if it is not cleaned up.

As well as people, animals (5) ________________ (harm) by pollution. Land and water pollution kills many animals every year. If we do not act to improve the environment, more living things (6) ________________ (kill) by pollution.

However, there is some good news. A show (7) ________________ (hold) at the town hall this Friday evening. All of us will have a chance to think about the world around us. On that day, we (8) ________________ (show) how to protect the environment.

If we work together, we can make the world a better place.

Daniel and I did a survey this (1) ________________. Students were asked about their (2) ________________.

Here are the results of the survey. Only (3) ________________ students usually take showers for less than 10 minutes, but (4) ________________ students turn off the tap when brushing their teeth. Only 15 students recycle (5) ________________, but (6) ________________ students use both sides of the paper. It is great that most students remember to (7) ________________ the lights when they leave a room, but few students take their own (8) ________________ to the supermarket.

The survey shows that students are doing a lot to help protect the environment, but there are still many more things they can do.

Sandy

B  Speak up: We can plant more trees.

Sandy and Kitty are talking about how to protect the environment. Work in pairs and talk about actions you can take. Use the conversation below as a model.

Sandy: Pollution has become a serious problem all around the world.

Kitty: Yes, I agree. We should try our best to protect the environment.

Sandy: What can we do?

Kitty: We can plant more trees. I think our town will look nicer with more trees around.

Sandy: Good idea. Trees reduce dust and help keep the air clean. Air pollution is harmful to our health.

Kitty: Right. Trees also help keep soil in place during storms.

Sandy: Yes. They provide home for animals too.

Checking your work

You can correct a lot of your own mistakes by checking your work. After you have finished a piece of writing, always spend some time reading it through.

Millie has written an article. Help her check her work. Underline the mistakes, make the corrections and decide the types of mistakes she has made. Use the information in the box to help you. There are ten mistakes. One has been corrected.

W = word usage mistake  P = punctuation mistake
S = spelling mistake    M = missing word
G = grammatical mistake

Let’s protect our environment!

People depend on natural resources to live. Water and soil help provide us with necessary food and drinks. Coal, oil and natural gas is not only useful for families, but have a wider use for factories.

Some natural resources are around us, such as water and air. Others like coal, oil and natural gas are dug up from the ground. They will form over thousands or even millions of years. As a result, it is very important for us to use them wise. If they are used and thrown away carelessly, finally some of them will run out.

It is time for us to take proper actions to protect our environment. We should try produce less waste, reuse or recycle things if possible?
Going green

The Class 1, Grade 8 students are going to give a presentation on how to go green. Here are Millie’s ideas. Read her notes below.

Our environment is changing for the worse, so it is time for us to go green! Here are some simple steps to take.

To save water:
- Take shorter showers.
- Turn off the tap when you brush your teeth.
- Reuse water if possible.

To save power:
- Turn off the lights when you leave a room.
- Turn off the power when your TV or computer is not in use.

To reduce pollution:
- Do not use plastic bags. Take your own bags when shopping.
- Separate waste into different groups.

More tips for a green lifestyle:
- Do more exercise and watch less TV.
- Plant some flowers at home.

Follow these small steps, and you can make a big difference to the Earth!

A report on charity

Supporting charities is a good way to help other people. Your class is doing a report on the ways to help different charity projects.

A Planning and preparing

1 Work in groups of four. Look for information about different charity projects in China. You can find information in leaflets or newspapers, in the library or on the Internet.

Some charity projects in China
- Project Hope
- Project Green Hope
- Spring Bud Project
- Save China’s Tigers
- Happiness Project

Here are some details about Project Hope.

<table>

<tr>
<td>When was it set up?</td>
<td>In 1989</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Why was it set up?</td>
<td>To help children in poor areas</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>What kind of work does it do?</td>
<td>Sponsor children to go to school, build schools, libraries and playgrounds, etc.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>How many children has it helped?</td>
<td>About 4.5 million children (by 2012)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

2 Choose a charity project. Collect leaflets, advertisements and articles about it. Then try to prepare a list of questions. Use the questions above as a model.

3 Find out what people do to help this charity project. If you need help with ideas, you may use the questions on the next page.
a. Have you heard about Project Hope in China?
b. Do you know what it does?
c. Do you know how it raises money?
d. Are you willing to help poor children?
e. How can you help them?
f. Do you know of other ways to help this project? If yes, what are they?

4. Once you have prepared your list of questions, make 12 copies of it. Each member of your group should ask three classmates the questions.

5. When you have collected all the information, discuss with your group members how you will present it. You may use charts, graphs, pictures or other ways to help you. Make a list of all the suggestions.

6. Draw pictures and use photos to make your report attractive.

B. Describing how you can help the charity

Look at the ideas below. They are suggestions about what people can do for charity. You may include them in your report.

How people can help
- work as volunteers
- donate money or things
- organize an activity to raise money

Notes

Unit 1

1. You’ve changed too. You used to be so kind to me. (page 6, Picture 4)
   你也变了。你过去对我那么好。
   短语 used to 意思是“（用于过去持续或经常发生的事）曾经”。如:
   We used to play cards and Chinese chess together. 过去我们常在一起打牌、下象棋。

2. When I got married in 1965, my wife and I moved two blocks away and we’ve lived in this area since then. (page 8, lines 5–6)
   当我 1965 年结婚时，我和妻子搬到两个街区以外，此后一直住在这里。
   句中的 get married 意思是“结婚”，也可用 be married 表示。如:
   How long have you been married? 你结婚多长时间了?

3. Well, in some ways it is. (page 9, line 18)
   嗯，在某种程度上是这样的。
   短语 in some ways 意思是“在某种程度上；在某些方面”。如:
   In some ways I agree with you. 在某种程度上我同意你的观点。

4. Now I feel a bit lonely from time to time. (page 9, lines 21–22)
   现在我时不时会觉得有点孤独。
   短语 from time to time 意思是“不时，偶尔”。如:
   We have not seen each other for a long time, but we send emails from time to time.
   我们已经很久没见面了，但偶尔会通邮件。

5. Anyway, it’s good to see the amazing changes in the town. (page 9, lines 22–23)
   不管怎样，能看到小镇这些令人惊叹的变化，还是不错的。
   在 it is + adjective + to-infinitive 结构中，it 为形式主语，无实际意义，真正的主语是后面的动词不定式。如:
   It is nice to have a beautiful modern town. 有一座漂亮现代的城镇真好。

6. She’s just returned from the USA. (page 16, Part B)
   她刚从美国回来。
   注意：这里的 she’s 是 she has 的缩略形式。return 表示“回来，返回”的意思时为不及物动词。如:
   return home (adv.) 回家  return to school (n.) 回到学校

7. When did you last see each other? (page 16, Part B)
   你们上次见面是什么时候?
   句中的 last 是副词，意思是“最近，上一次”，可位于动词前，也可位于动词后。如:
   I last saw him in Shanghai two years ago. 我上一次是在两年前在上海见到他的。
   = I saw him last in Shanghai two years ago.

   短语 keep in touch 的意思是“保持联系”，也可用 stay in touch 表示。如:
Unit 2

1. I don’t think it’ll be a holiday for me. (page 20, Picture 4)
   我想对我来说这不会是什么假期。
   这是一个否定前移的句子，上句中的否定词实际否定的是从句中的内容。当主句含有I think、
   I believe 等词语时，常用否定前移。这一语言现象说明英语人在表达个人观点时较为含蓄。
   如：
   I don’t think he will come here today. 我认为他今天不会来这里。

2. It’s the Little Mermaid. (page 21, Part B)
   它是小美人鱼。
   小美人鱼铜像位于丹麦哥本哈根市中心东北部的长堤公园，是丹麦雕刻家爱德华·艾瑞克森
   根据安徒生童话《海的女儿》铸塑的。小美人鱼铜像已成为丹麦的象征。

   这是一个省略句型，省略了主语I，完整的句子是：
   I hope (that) you’ve enjoyed yourself there!
   在非正式行文（包括日记、卡片、便条、信件等）中，有时我们会省去主语，使文字更简洁。
   如：
   Hope to hear from you. 期待收到你的来信。

6. My dad has been to Chengdu on business twice. (page 30, Part B)
   我爸爸去成都出差过两次。
   句中的 on business 意思是“出差”。business 的意思是“公事，生意”，该词还有“职责”
   和“企业”的意思。如：

1 Here we are in “the Big Apple”—New York, the biggest city in the USA. (page 37, lines 5–6)
现在我们到了“大苹果”——纽约，美国最大的城市。
纽约别称“大苹果”。关于此名的由来有好几个版本，其中广为流传的一个是源自20世纪初流行于美国爵士乐手中的一句歌词：“树上有这么多苹果，当你选中了纽约市，你就选中了最大的苹果。”后来the Big Apple成了纽约市的代名词，意指这是一个充满机遇的城市。

2 Wall Street, the world-famous trade centre, is here at the southern end of Manhattan Island. (page 37, lines 7–9)
华尔街，闻名于世的贸易中心，位于曼哈顿岛的最南端。
华尔街是纽约市曼哈顿区南部一条大街的名字。现该词已超越这条街道本身，成为附近区域的代称，亦可指整个美国经济中具有影响力的金融市场和金融机构。

3 Further on is Times Square. Every year, thousands of people gather here on New Year's Eve. It's exciting to see the huge glass ball falling through the darkness! (page 37, lines 11–13)
再往前走就是时报广场。每年新年前夜，成千上万的人聚集在这里。看巨大的玻璃球在黑暗中落下，真是太让人兴奋了！
时报广场是纽约市曼哈顿区最繁华的街区，以一年一度的“彩灯球下降”活动而闻名。

中央公园于1858年确定设计方案并开始建设，1873年才全部建成，是美国第一个城市花园。句中的 with several lakes, hills and a large green lawn 为介词短语，起副词作用。with 的意思是“带有；伴随”。如:
With a smile on his face, he came into the classroom. 他面带微笑走进了教室。
5 When you visit New York, don’t miss Broadway. It has been famous for its theatres since the early twentieth century. (page 37, lines 16–19)

2 I like reading novels and plays. The Hunchback of Notre Dame by the French writer Victor Hugo is great. (page 49, Part B)
我喜欢阅读小说和戏剧。法国作家维克多·雨果的《巴黎圣母院》很棒。

《巴黎圣母院》是法国作家雨果（1802–1885）创作的浪漫主义小说，叙述的是一位从小生活在巴黎圣母院钟楼的敲钟人卡西莫多（Quasimodo）的故事。卡西莫多天生身形与长相都异于常人，只能独自在钟楼上过着与世隔绝的生活，直到在一场嘉年华会上遇到了吉卜赛女郎艾斯美拉达（Esmeralda），他的世界才开始发生变化。

- 一般过去时表示过去某个时间发生的事情或存在的状态，说话的侧重点在陈述过去发生的事情或状态。如：
  I went to Beijing last month. 我上个月去过北京。
  Tom was in China in 2008, 2008年汤姆在中国。

- 现在完成时则表示到说话时为止已经发生或完成（不一定结束）的动作或状态，强调造成的结果或对现在产生影响。如：
I have bought a new mobile phone. 我买了一部新手机。（言下之意：我有新手机用了。）
I have been to London many times. 我去过伦敦很多次。（言下之意：我对伦敦较熟悉。）
注意：一般过去时通常与表示过去的时间状语连用。如：yesterday, last week, two years ago, just now, in 2008 等。
现在完成时则通常与频度副词或表示一段时间的状语连用。如：many times, never, these days, this week, since ...，for ... 等。

Unit 4

疑问词 + 动词不定式

- 我们可以用 “疑问词 + 动词不定式” 结构作动词的宾语。疑问词包括疑问代词what, which, who和疑问副词how, when, where等。常和 “疑问词 + 动词不定式” 结构连用的动词及动词短语有：know, learn, see, hear, ask, tell, advise, decide, explain, find out, forget, remember, think, understand, wonder等。如：
  I do not know what to say next. 我不知道接下来说什么。
  I cannot decide which to take. 我不能决定该拿哪一个。
  有些动词，如advise, ask, show, teach, tell等，其后可以接双宾语。如：
  Please tell me how to get there. 请告诉我怎么去那儿。
  Sandy showed Millie how to start the online tour. 桑迪给米莉演示了如何开始这个在线旅游。
- 有些疑问词，如what, which, whose, how many, how much等，其后可以先接一个名词，再接动词不定式。如：
  She wondered how many subjects to choose. 她不知道该选几门学科。
  在 “疑问词 + 动词不定式” 结构前，有时也可以是如sure, clear 等的形容词。如：
  I am not sure which way to take. 我不确定走那条路。
  “疑问词 + 动词不定式” 结构在句子中还可以作主语和宾语。如：
  How to deal with the problem is most important to us.
  如何处理这个问题对我们来说最重要。
  The problem is when to leave the place. 问题是何时离开这个地方。
- “疑问词 + 动词不定式” 结构可以改写成由该疑问词引导的从句。如：
  I do not know what to do. 我不知道该做什么。
  = I do not know what I should do.
注意：所有疑问词中，只有why不可以与动词不定式连用。 must/have to的用法

- must表示主观的义务和必要，主要用于肯定句和疑问句，意思是 “必须，得，要”。如：
  You must finish your homework today. 你今天必须完成家庭作业。
- must的否定形式must not表示禁止，意思是 “不能，不许”。如：
  You must not smoke here. 你不能在这里吸烟。
- have to表示一种客观的需要，意思是 “不得不”。have to有人称和数的变化。如：
  It is getting dark. He has to go home now. 天快黑了。他现在得回家了。
  Mum is out, so I have to look after the shop. 妈妈出去了，因此我不得不照看商店。
- have to的否定形式是do not have to。如：
  They do not have to buy a computer at the moment. 他们目前没有必要买电脑。
  He does not have to go. 他不必走。
注意：must 还可以表示肯定猜测，意思是“一定”。如：
You must be hungry after all that walking. 走了这么远的路，你一定饿了吧。

Unit 5

enough to的用法

- 我们可以用“to be + adjective + enough + to do” 的结构来描述一个人的品质和能力。
  如：
  - He is tall enough to reach the basket. 他个头高，可以够到篮筐。
  - The girl is not brave enough to go near the dog. 这个女孩胆子不够大，不敢靠近那只狗。
- enough 可以作状语、定语和表语。
  - The house is not big enough for us. 这房子对我们来说不够大。
  - Have you got enough money? 你的钱够吗？
  - Six bottles should be enough. 六瓶应该够了。

too ... to的用法

- 我们可以用“to be + too + adjective + to do” 的结构来表达一个否定的结果。如：
  - He is too tired to go on working. 他太累了，不能继续工作。
  - British people are too polite to laugh loudly in public. 英国人太有礼貌了，不会在公众场合大声笑。
- 我们可以在不定式前加介词for 引出逻辑主语。如：
  - The box is very heavy. The little boy cannot carry it. 盒子太重了，这个小男孩搬不动。
  - The apple is very high. The child cannot reach it. 苹果放得太高了，这个孩子够不着。
- The apple is too high for the little boy to carry.
- The apple is too high for the child to reach.

- 通常我们可以根据 too ... to 结构中的不定式是否为及物动词来确定它是否带宾语。如：
  - He is too tired to go any further. 他太累了，不能再往前走了。
- （动词go 是不及物动词，其后不直接加宾语）
  - She is too poor to buy such an expensive blouse. 她太穷了，买不起这么贵的衬衫。
- （动词buy 是及物动词，其后接宾语such an expensive blouse）

注意：too ... to 结构和 never 一起使用时并不表示否定。如：
One is never too old to learn. 活到老，学到老。

- “to be + too + adjective + to do” 结构相当于“to be + not + adjective + enough + to do”，通常在第二种句型中使用的形容词是第一种结构中使用的形容词的反义词。如：
  - The little girl is too young to go to school. 这个小女孩年纪太小，还不能上学。
  - The little girl is not old enough to go to school.
Unit 6

“It is + adjective (+ for .../of ...) + to-infinitive” 句型

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>句型</th>
<th>含义</th>
<th>举例</th>
<th>说明</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>It is + adjective + to do something</td>
<td>做某事是……的</td>
<td>It is interesting to go fishing. 钓鱼真有趣。</td>
<td>该句型中的形容词表示不定式所具备的特征或客观情况。如：cheap, convenient, dangerous, difficult, easy, exciting, expensive, important, interesting, necessary, normal, possible, useful, wonderful。</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>It is + adjective + for somebody + to do something</td>
<td>对某人来说做某事是……的</td>
<td>It is necessary for me to help him. 对我来说帮助他是必须的。</td>
<td>基本同“It is + adjective + to do something”句型，for 引出逻辑主语。</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>It is + adjective + of somebody + to do something</td>
<td>某人做某事真是太……了</td>
<td>It is clever of him to solve the problem. 他真聪明，解决了这个难题。</td>
<td>该句型中的形容词描述的是人的特征、品质等。如：brave, careless, clever, foolish, generous, good, helpful, honest, kind, nice, polite, silly, stupid, wrong。</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

注意：“It is + adjective + of somebody + to do something” 句型中，of 后的宾语与动词不定式之间存在逻辑上的主谓关系，一般都可以转换成一个以 of 后的宾语为主语的句子。如：

It is foolish of them to do so. 他们这样做真是太愚蠢。

= They are foolish to do so.

Unit 7

被动语态 (I)

被动语态的一般现在时和一般过去时

语态是动词的一种形式，表示的是主语和谓语之间的关系。英语中的语态有两种：主动语态和被动语态。

- 当主语是谓语的执行者时，用主动语态。当主语是谓语的承受者时，用被动语态。如：

  We clean the classroom every day. 我们每天都打扫教室。

  The classroom is cleaned (by us) every day. 教室每天都被（我们）打扫。
被动语态的基本构成：

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>主语</th>
<th>be 动词</th>
<th>过去分词</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>一般现在时</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>am</td>
<td>supported.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You/We/They</td>
<td>are</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>He/She/It</td>
<td>is</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>一般过去时</td>
<td></td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>was</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>You/We/They</td>
<td>were</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>He/She/It</td>
<td>was</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

被动语态的基本用法：
1. 动作的执行者是泛指或不言自明时。如：
   None of the books was taken away. 没有一本书被拿走。
2. 在不知道动作的执行者是谁时。如：
   The toy is designed for children. 这款玩具是为孩子们设计的。
3. 需要强调动作的承受者时。如：
   My bike was repaired. 我的自行车修好了。
4. 出于委婉或礼貌而避谈动作的执行者时。如：
   This problem was talked about just now. 这个问题刚才被讨论过。
5. 在被动语态的句子中，如果我们需要指出动作的执行者，可以由by引出。如：
   Mr. Wu is liked by all of his students. 所有的学生都喜欢吴老师。

注意：有些动词常用被动语态。如：
   He was born in Nanjing. 他生于南京。
   This mobile phone was made in China. 这部手机是中国制造的。

• 主动语态与被动语态的句式转化：

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>主动语态</th>
<th>主语</th>
<th>谓语(主动式)</th>
<th>宾语</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>She</td>
<td>hurt</td>
<td>me.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>被动语态</td>
<td>原宾语(改为主格)</td>
<td>谓语(被动式)</td>
<td>由</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>was hurt</td>
<td>by</td>
<td>原主语(改为宾格)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

主语 + 谓语 + 双宾语的句式转化：

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>主动语态</th>
<th>主语</th>
<th>谓语(主动式)</th>
<th>间宾</th>
<th>直宾</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>He</td>

<td>谓语(被动式)</td>
<td>to</td>
<td>由</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>A book</td>
<td>was passed</td>
<td>me.</td>
<td>by</td>
<td>原主语(改为宾格)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>I</td>
<td>was passed</td>
<td>a book</td>
<td>by</td>
<td>原主语(改为宾格)</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
注意：1. 有些动词，其主动语态形式含有被动意义。如：系动词 smell, taste, sound, feel等。
   The dish smelt good. 这道菜闻起来很香。
   The music sounded nice. 这段音乐听起来不错。
   还有一些不及物动词，常用主动语态，和 well, easily 等副词连用，含有被动意义。如： read, write, draw, sell, wash, cook, clean等。
   The books sell well. 这些书很畅销。
   The pen writes smoothly. 这支笔写起来很顺利。

2. 在感官动词和使役动词的主动语态句式中，动词不定式的 to 的常省去，但是在被动语态中要加上 to。

<table>

<tr>
<th>主动语态</th>
<th>主语</th>
<th>谓语 (主动式)</th>

Unit 8

    - 他几分钟之内就会被送去医院。
  - The food will be/is going to be eaten by the dog soon.
    - 这些食物马上就会被狗吃掉。
- 被动语态的一般将来时的构成：

<td>You/We/They</td>
<td>will be/are going to be</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>He/She/It</td>
<td>will be/is going to be</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

注意：主语是第一人称时，被动语态的一般将来时也可以用 “shall be + 动词的过去分词” 来表达。
